GRENADA'S FINANCE MINISTER TO ADDRESS ORGANIZATION OF THE PETROLEUM EXPORTING COUNTRIES (OPEC) FUND DEVELOPMENT FORUM IN AUSTRIA

St. George's, Grenada - June 12, 2025 – Grenada's Minister for Finance, Hon. Dennis Cornwall, will depart the State on Sunday to attend the prestigious OPEC Fund Development Forum (OFDF25), scheduled for June 17, 2025, in Vienna, Austria.

The forum will convene government leaders, heads of finance and development institutions, and senior representatives from both the public and private sectors to engage in meaningful dialogue on sustainable solutions to address pressing global challenges. This year's theme, "A transition that empowers our tomorrow," highlights the importance of inclusive and adaptable development frameworks in the face of growing global uncertainties.

Minister Cornwall has been invited to contribute to a high-level plenary discussion on the topic "Scaling Solutions for Vulnerable Economies." His participation underscores Grenada's ongoing commitment to international cooperation and sustainable economic development and is expected to highlight the country's strategic actions towards advancing resilient growth across the priority sectors.

Grenada's delegation at the OPEC Fund Development Forum will also include Ambassador Andrea St. Bernard, Special Envoy for Development and Investment to the Government of Grenada, and Mr. Damian Dolland, Lead Consultant for Project Polaris.
